

READERS' CHOICE

Top 10 Executive Coaches

Each month, Women's Business asks readers for nominations to create a Top 10 list in a particular category. In this issue, we present our region's top executive coaches. Following are the dynamic professionals who provide the top-notch guidance that readers rely on for their personal and professional development.

Rita Allen

President

Rita B. Allen Associates

"Rita excels at establishing relationships where you as the client feel that you are in a partnership with her. She cares about you as an individual, she keeps you focused, she challenges you to think out of the box and she helps you open up new possibilities in order to realize your goals. Rita has great passion and integrity for her work. She is committed to the success of both the individual and the team."
